LOCAL NEWS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair and continued cool with frost tonight. Wednesday fair; light to fresh northwesterly winds, becoming variable.

Personal.

Messrs. K. Kemper, W. W. Sherwood, Thomas Perry, J. M. Johnson, E. C. Graham and W. H. May, of R. E. Lee Camp of this city, expect to leave tonight on the Norfolk steamer for Newport News to attend the meeting of the Grand Camp which is to be held this year in that place.

Mr. Joseph Warren Reeves, of Allendale, S. C., and Miss Lucy Neal Kerriek, of this city, were married at the parsonage of the M. P. Church Saturday night by Rev. Mr. Ewell.

Mrs. A. D. Warfield is seriously ill at her home on south Alfred street.

Mrs. David Fustun Ward, of Port Deposit, Maryland, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Frances B. Fwing, at her home on Prince street in this city.

Mr. Michael Dwyer is visiting in Richmond.

The Rev. Mr. Luecke is visiting Mr. A. Russell in Charlottesville.

Mr. C. B. Marshall, D. D. G. M. of Masons, will to tomorrow night pay an official visit to Henry Lodge at Fairfax. He will be accompanied by such Alexandrians as wish to go.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fugitt, of Washington, are the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fugitt, on south Market street. Mrs. Fugitt was Miss Leonora Chancey, of Alexandria. —[Winchester News.]

Fire in Leesburg.

About half-past four o'clock this morning Superintendent Lynch of the Standard Oil Company, stationed at Leesburg, proceeded to one of the tanks for the purpose of drawing oil. He carried a lighted lantern, and by some accident the contents of the tank became ignited and an explosion followed. Another tank contiguous to the one which was burning also caught fire and both were soon roaring fiercely and lighting up the town. The tanks were situated close to the railroad depot, but the fire was confined to the premises of the Standard Oil Company and no other property was damaged.

Virginia Horses.

All lovers of Virginia horses will be pleased to hear of the marked success of Mr. Courtland H. Smith's hunters at the recent Kansas City horse show, where they carried off 1st, 2nd, and 3rd prizes in the heat of very close competition. Among the prize winners were, Garnett, Riddle, Up-to-date, Chappie Lee, Lucy Sutherland, Skibbereene, Firelight, Ogunquit, Tip Top and others. Alexandria county, it will thus be seen, is keeping abreast of the times in equine excellence and achievement.

Long Bridge Draw.

The announcement was made by the officers of the Pennsylvania Railroad in Washington yesterday to representatives of the shipping interests that the draw in Long bridge would be ready for the passage of all kinds of craft Saturday or Sunday next. It is probable that on the day the new draw is put in travel over the bridge will be suspended and the transportation of passengers, mail and express will be made by the ferryboats at this city, as was done last week when the accident at the bridge occurred.

G. F. & O. D. Ry.

The corps of engineers which has been at work for the past two weeks placing the last stakes for the Great Falls and Old Dominion Railway finished its work Saturday, and the contract will be let at once for the construction of a double-track electric road from the Aqueduct bridge to the Great Falls. The work is to be rushed so as to be well under way before Congress convenes. The attorneys for the road, accompanied by Mr. G. W. Boheler and a notary, are having the last few deeds to the rights of way executed.

Police Court.

[Mayor G. L. Simpson presiding.] The following cases were disposed of yesterday:

Eugene Holmes, colored, arrested by Officer Garvey charged with stealing a pair of shoes from Daniel Leskey, was fined $5.

A man arrested by Officer Griffin charged with gambling on Sunday last, was fined $10.

Bazar and Supper.

Last night was the opening night of the bazar and supper given by the Christian Endeavor Society of the M. P. Church, and was a success in every particular. The Alexandria Light Infantry was present and added much to the pleasure of the evening. Tonight the sons of Confederate Veterans will be present and tomorrow evening the fire companies will participate in the festivities.

Retail Merchants' Association.

The meeting last night of the Retail Merchants' Association at the rooms of the Business Men's League was well attended. Nineteen new members were elected and considerable business of interest to the organization was transacted. The meeting was spirited throughout and much interest was manifested by all present. The association now has fifty-six members on its rolls.

Football.

On the University of Virginia Athletic field yesterday evening the Episcopal High School football eleven, which is out for the school and academy championship of Virginia, defeated the Miller School team, 23 to 0. The victory is significant from the fact that Miller School recently held Washington and Lee down to a small score, themselves scoring a field goal.

Declared a Dividend.

The Old Dominion Glass Company, one of Alexandria's youngest enterprises, has declared a dividend of six per cent. on the capital stock. This announcement will be read with satisfaction not only by those directly interested in the works, but by all Alexandrians who rejoice at the success of manufacturing in this city.

A meeting of the Sons of Confederate Veterans will be held tonight at the hall 805 Prince street.

The Opera House.

The favorite comedians, Conroy and Mack, opened a week's engagement at the Opera House last night, and the largest audience seen there this season was present. The box office was closed at eight o'clock and many were turned away. The attraction was the four-act comedy-drama, "A Young Girl Saved," which was excellently presented by an evenly-balanced company. This company has been an Alexandria favorite for years, and criticism is not necessary. Pat Conway in the part of Hunkley Hopper made quite a hit with the crowd, while John G. Giles as Squire Horton, Harry K. Hamilton as Andrew Hillman, Helene Reika as Margaret Townsend, Agnes Earle as Priscilla, and Anna Goodwin as Teddie Mount received well-deserved applause. The specialties between the acts are of the highest order, and very enjoyable. The company is a good one and will no doubt be received by a large house each night. Tonight the attraction will be "A Woman's Love," with a special setting of scenery and a large number of handsome costumes. This is one of the best dramas of the entire week, and the specialties between the acts will be entirely new.

Circus Next Thursday.

Sig. Sautelle's mammoth three-ring, 28-car, railroad circus, menagerie, hippodrome and wild west will exhibit in Alexandria Thursday afternoon and evening, October 29. Mr. Sautelle is well known in the amusement world, having been constantly before the public for 17 years. From a very humble beginning Sig. Sautelle's amusement enterprise has grown to be the acknowledged best of all American circuses and he is known throughout the length and breadth of the land as one of the foremost leaders of his profession. Mr. Sautelle has taken his circus year after year over much the same territory and is always met with phenomenally increasing patronage which is positive proof that his shows are highly meritorious.

County Court.

[Judge J. M. Love presiding.] Com. vs. C. C. Clements; indicted for selling liquor without a license; jury and verdict of guilty, accused fined $20 and sentenced to serve three months in jail.

Com. vs. John Wilson, charged with selling liquor without a license; jury and verdict of guilty, accused fined $20 and sentenced to serve eight months in jail.

Comp. vs. J. C. Nelson, charged with selling liquor without a license; jury unable to agree and court adjourned for the term.

The Approaching Election.

Elections will be held throughout the State today week for Senators and Delegates to the Legislature. In all counties local officers will also be selected on that occasion. There will be no serious opposition to Mr. L. H. Machen, candidate for Senator from this district, while Mr. J. R. Caton, candidate for the House of Delegates from this city and county, will have a clear walk over, as he has no one to oppose him. There is a contest in the Attorney and Mr. R. W. Johnson is opposed by Messrs. W. U. Varney and Crandall Mackey.

The Cool Wave.

The cool wave which set in yesterday was in evidence last night and during the early hours of this morning. Skins of ice formed in some places during the night and the heaviest frost of the season was seen this morning.

Erratum.

The paragraph in the Police Court in yesterday's Gazette stating that John Green, colored, was fined five dollars for selling liquor without a license and on Sunday was an error. It should have read fifty dollars.

Game Wardens.

Upon the application of five freeholders Judge Barley today appointed Messrs. R. H. Atkinson and W. L. Mullen game wardens for this city.

Rummage Sale.

The ladies of St. Paul's Sewing Society will hold a rummage sale at the Parish Hall, commencing Tuesday, Nov. 3rd, and continuing through the week.

PRICES ADVANCE.—The Standard Oil Company yesterday advanced the wholesale price on all grades of refined oil 1 cent per gallon. This makes an advance of 14 cents per gallon in the wholesale prices inside of a week, as a 3 cent advance was announced last Friday. Not since the progress of the cotton corner under the leadership of W. P. Brown, of New Orleans, some months ago, was there as much excitement in the market as developed in New York yesterday. Even in the sensational advances of the summer there was no opening that compared with the advance yesterday, when December cotton, which closed on Saturday at 9.96 cents, opened at 10.25 cents, and in a whirl of buying shot up to 10.34 cents, a net advance of 38 points, or about $2 a bale. Wild excitement characterized the market and brokers had trouble in executing their orders.

Greathouse, of Prattburg, Ga., speaks for itself: "I would have been dead now but for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me of chronic diarrhoea after several years of suffering. I can never say too much in praise of that remedy." For sale by Richard Gibson.
